

THE MOOBERRY FAMILY
MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

Dear Praying Friends and Churches,

April, 2011

Hello from the state of Michigan! The month of April went very good for us and we were happy to spend it with missions minded churches in the beautiful states of Kentucky and Ohio! Only God could give us so many good meetings in these last days and the ones in Kentucky and Ohio have been no exception! Each church has gone out of their way to be a blessing to us and we have been blessed this month with more financial and prayer support to help us on our way to Brazil. By the way, the love offerings have been phenomenal, which helps out immensely now that gas is well over four dollars per gallon!

Thankfully, the Lord has been keeping us "on the road," in every aspect! Last month it was literal! While working on the underside of our travel trailer several weeks ago, it became evident that one of the leaf springs (that supports the weight of our trailer) had begun to crack, although it was still intact. The helpful, and mechanically inclined, pastor of the church we were at was a great help! However, after a few phone calls we discovered that the time it would take to get the parts and have the work done would take an entire week or more! The Lord gave me peace that I had done all I could and not only got us to our next destination safely but also provided a (born-again) mechanic, in that location, who gladly got the parts and did the work in only a few days!!! The previously mentioned pastor was kind enough to call and inform us that his church was going to pick up the bill for us! Praise the Lord! Needless to say it was extra good news when we found out the mechanic charged us next to nothing for both parts and labor! Thanks for praying for our safety!

Overall, the Lord has been very good to us! All of our meetings are going extremely well and we believe that God has blessed each one. We can't wait to make the transition to Brazil, soon! Our Portuguese language studies have been going well and we are currently, beginning the process for obtaining our missionary visas to Brazil!!! Our financial support is coming in much faster than we could have guessed and we have a good lineup of meetings scheduled out until November! By the grace of God that is when we will be departing for Brazil!!! Will you please pray that God will continue to bless our deputation and get us to Brazil as soon as possible?

Sincerely in Jesus Christ,

Matthew, Maggie, Mark, and Luke Mooberry
