MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

Dear Friends and Churches,

January, 2011

Praise the Lord Jesus Christ, who has “preserved” for us his words in the King’s English for the last 400 years! It would be an understatement to say that without the King James Bible our spiritual vision would be blurred, in this Laodicean age in which “all roads lead to Rome.” However, thank God we are not without his words and according to those precious words can clearly see that we will be seeing our Saviour, face to face, very soon (hopefully, today)!!!

Thank you all for your faithful prayers, according to which our merciful God has prospered us abundantly! January we spent almost entirely in Alabama, which is supposed to be “warmer” during the winter months, or so I thought. Not this winter! We experienced a heap of snow along with many a chilly night, to the intent that we could glorify God for our travel trailer and the shelter and warmth it provides! God also allowed us to visit with some good friends of ours during one of these “cold spells,” with whom we had a very good time!

Our sons Mark and Luke have been a great evangelistic tool, as of late! Although they are only two and three years old, both are showing much promise in becoming future soul-winners! Knowing what scriptures say about “the lost,” their soul-consciousness is becoming evident in common, every day experiences. Mark and Luke can easily hand out a small handful of tracts each time we are at Wal-Mart, but if we pass by someone without giving them one, Mark will say (loud enough that the whole store can hear him!), “If we don’t give that man a tract, he’s going to go to hell!!!” Many times after Maggie or I witness to someone, Mark will punctuate by asking us (loud enough that the “offended party” can always hear!), “Is that man saved? Is that man going to hell?!” Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. Psalms 8:2

We have a special prayer request concerning the successful delivery of a recent shipment of Chick tracts and booklets currently en-route to Brazil. Please pray that everything would arrive at the right address and in one piece. Eagerly awaiting its arrival are many young Brazilians who are “chomping at the bit” for more “ammo!” The missionary we sent them to, Bro. Matt Sherrouse, joyfully said he’s got to refill their church’s tract rack every week! No doubt, that’s the kind of “problem” every missionary wants to have! Please pray that these tracts would find their way into the hands of those lost, sinners who need them most! “For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” Romans 10:13

Sincerely in Jesus Christ,

Matthew, Maggie, Mark, and Luke Mooberry
