

THE MOOBERRY FAMILY
MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

Dear Praying Saints,

July, 2011

Whew!!! It's been a hot and busy month of July! We have spent most of it in the sizzling state of Pennsylvania; the topography of which, just like life, is full of ups and downs. Thankfully, through God the "ups" always outweigh the "downs" and no matter where we are the grace of God always exceeds the "heat index!" Whatever that is!

Thanks to God, our prayers and yours were answered in many ways this month. God is providing us with good meetings and has helped us fill some very important "slots" in our schedule. He opened up many more doors for us to witness this month, in answer to your prayers. Two precious souls heard God's plan of salvation for the first time in their lives as the Lord provided a "natural opening" to deal with each of them. Kristy willingly received a tract at a BP station and then asked for help with directions because she was "lost." You can't ask for a better opening than that! Unable to give the best way to Fort Wayne, Indiana, I told her the "best" (and only) way to heaven, which is Jesus Christ. When I asked if she'd ever received Christ as her Saviour, her response was, "How do I do that?" The lost world is waiting to hear about Jesus Christ, but they just don't know it!

Another soul, named Troy, was a young man who I met on a ferry boat, en-route to Prince Edward Island, Canada. He, also, gave me a God given, "natural opening." Upon receiving a tract he cautioned me with a smile, saying, "You know, I'm not religious." I responded, "That's good, because nobody ever got to heaven by being "religious." Both Kristy and Troy heard exactly what they needed, but did not accept Jesus Christ on the spot. Pray that God will give them another chance and that they would receive Jesus Christ before it is too late.

Thanks to all of you who prayed for our "truck problems" this month! For those of you who don't know, our truck broke down on I-80 westbound, right in the middle of northern Pennsylvania. Pretty much everywhere in northern Pennsylvania is "in the middle of nowhere." However, we were only a half-mile from the nearest exit, which happened to be the very exit we needed to get to the nearest mechanic and campground. Some people wonder if God is in control. The mechanic told us that a few parts in the "transfer case" had broken, but were able to be replaced at a fraction of the cost than if more had been damaged. Our truck broke down on Saturday and we were back on the road and running again the following Thursday! We didn't have to miss a single meeting. As always, Praise the Lord Jesus!

Sincerely, in Jesus Christ,

Matthew, Maggie, Mark, and Luke Mooberry
