

THE MOOBERRY FAMILY

MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

Dear Praying Friends,

October 2010

Thank you once again for your many prayers as this month marks the end of our first year of full time deputation! It has been our pleasure to have now presented our call of God and burden for the people of Brazil to over ninety different churches! Because of your prayers, God has made each meeting a blessing. None of the "horror" stories have happened to us (yet)!

From time to time people ask me, "How is your schedule coming along?" or "Are you finding it difficult scheduling meetings?" We sincerely appreciate your concern and prayers concerning these matters. Times are getting tough for churches financially these days and the concerns of God's people are legitimate. However, God has not been limited by these things and I can't see Him being so any time soon! Our schedule is doing "just fine" thanks to your faithful prayers.

For those of you who pray for us to see souls saved along the way, God has answered prayer! We saw three young men named Michael, Brandon, and Jarred (between the ages of 12 and 14 years old) come to a saving knowledge of Jesus Christ (all on the same night)! These were three friends whom I met at the end of a revival meeting service. All of them knew they were sinners. All three believed they were going to hell. All three of them trusted Jesus Christ to save them that night! Praise the Lord! The church furnished them with Bibles and they all wore big, happy smiles as they considered what Jesus Christ had done! Whenever I give a new convert a Bible I always write the date of their salvation in the front of the Bible and sign my name under it, being a witness of their conversion. With that I always give the new convert a verse of scripture and my favorite is John 6:37.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.
John 6:37

The oldest of the three boys felt compelled to show one of the church members his new found verse in the Bible. The man said, "That's you (in the verse) isn't it!" He answered the man with great assurance, "Yup! That's me!"

No matter how bad things seem for you, at any given time, you can bank on the fact that someone has it worse. Please pray for a 12 year old boy named Kirkland. He has had quite a difficult life (in the home, especially) up to this point and has never accepted the Lord Jesus Christ. His mom and dad are both slowly dying and he is living with his aunt at the time. She brought him to church the other day and that is where we met. He heard some scripture but is in need of the Lord to work it in to his heart, as only He can. Please pray for Kirkland to be saved!

Sincerely in Jesus Christ,
Matthew, Maggie, Mark, and Luke Mooberry
